Think of Me / Catholic Charities

When Brian was 14, he began to act out and become physically aggressive. His mother was at a loss at how to help her son. “I tried getting Brian a mentor, took him for counseling, talked to our priest, and nothing seemed to work. Then Father suggested Catholic Charities.” Two days after calling Catholic Charities, Brian and his mother began working with Emily, a therapist through the Multisystemic Therapy Program. Through MST, a program designed for at-risk youth, Brian and his mother found ways to manage his behavior and get on track to a more peaceful home life. “It is hard work, but it is worth it to see my child return to his normal behavior. It wasn’t easy for Brian or myself, but I stuck with it and am very impressed with the results. I feel that 100 pounds has been lifted off my back.” Your gift to the 2020 Appeal helps families like Brian and his mother. Will you think of them? Make a secure donation online at www.ccwny.org/donation or by calling 716-218-1400.

“Private prayer is like straw scattered here And there: If you set it on fire, it makes a lot of little flames. But gather these straws into a bundle and light them, and you get a mighty fire, rising like a column into the sky; public prayer is like that.”
