LIVING THANKS

Dear Friends,

Thank you so much for joining us for Mass today! This week, as we celebrate Thanksgiving, we offer our gratitude to God for the gift of life and its many blessings. Gratitude comes from the same root as the word "grace", which comes from the Greek word "charis", which also translates to the word "gift".

St. John Paul II said that we should "seek to live in the order of gift and of love." So, recognizing that God has given us the gift of himself as well as all the gifts we have in this life, we want the notion of gifting ourselves back to God in thanksgiving to come to define our life. Gratitude is not then merely a sentiment for a day or for when things go our way, but it is an integral part of living in the Kingdom of God. Gratitude is part of the movement of grace and gift that imbue our life from the moment of Baptism.

On this Thanksgiving, may we give to the Lord the praise and gift of faithfulness, prayerfulness, commitment, and service. Happy and joyous blessings to you this week! - Fr. Mark

VIVO GRACIAS

Queridos amigos,

Muchas gracias por acompañarnos en la misa de hoy! Esta semana, mientras celebramos el Día de Acción de Gracias, ofrecemos nuestra gratitud a Dios por el regalo de la vida y sus muchas bendiciones. La gratitud proviene de la misma raíz que la palabra "gracia", que proviene de la palabra griega "charis", que también se traduce como la palabra "don".

San Juan Pablo II dijo que debemos "buscar vivir en el orden del don y del amor". Entonces, reconociendo que Dios nos ha dado el don de sí mismo, así como todos los dones que tenemos en esta vida, queremos que la noción de regalarnos a Dios en acción de gracias llegue a definir nuestra vida. La gratitud no es entonces meramente un sentimiento por un día o por cuando las cosas salen como queremos, sino que es una parte integral de vivir en el Reino de Dios. La gratitud es parte del movimiento de gracia y don que impregna nuestra vida desde el momento del Bautismo.

Que en este Día de Acción de Gracias demos al Señor la alabanza y el don de la fidelidad, la oración, el compromiso y el servicio. Bendiciones felices y gozosas para ti esta semana! - P. Marcos
